Even before the summer Rockstar Mayhem Festival commences, the people behind Rockstar's music promotions have already announced the headliners for the fall Rockstar Uproar Tour. Though most dates and venues have yet to be announced, it is known Shinedown, Godsmack, Staind, Papa Roach and Adelita's Way will be hitting the road together beginning in September. P.O.D., Fozzy, Thousand Foot Crutch and In This Moment are among the notable bands who will share the second stage.

Road Notez

CHRIS HUPE

Rob Zombie and Marilyn Manson are rumored to be planning a fall tour together. Manson just released the long-awaited Born Villain, while Zombie continues to work on films, intermittently mixing in music when he can. Regardless, it would be a great tour to see. An announcement for the tour should be coming within the next two weeks.

The success of Rock Boat, in which fans sail the seas with some of their favorite bands has spawned a number of copycat music cruises including Kiss Cruise, Jam Cruise and Rock Legends Cruise. Now comes the final word in music cruises, The Barge to Hell. Leaving from Miami, Florida December 3, "The World's Most Extreme Metal Cruise" features a "who's who" list in the world of extreme music, including Six Feet Under, Sepultura, Napalm Death and At The Gates. Altogether, there will be 40 bands altogether pummeling passengers with music for five straight days. Though they list a return date of December 7, it begs the question, how does one sail a ship in hell?

For those into music a little more poppy, Nicki Minaj announced she will head out on the second leg of her Pink Friday Tour starting July 16 in Chicago. After visiting the Chicago Theatre, the wigged wonder will visit the Fox Theatre in Detroit and the State Theatre in Cleveland on the next two stops. Tickets are sure to sell out fast.

My Morning Jacket have announced they will tour this spring, bringing Band of Horses along for the ride. The bands visit Columbus, Ohio and Detroit August 12 and August 14, before heading out of the area and then returning to Chicago August 22.

Carrie Underwood embarks on the Blown Away Tour in September. Sure to be one of the biggest tours of the year, Underwood visits Grand Rapids November 15, Bankers Life Fieldhouse in Indianapolis November 24 and The Palace of Auburn Hills near Detroit November 25. Look for smaller venues like the Memorial Coliseum to be included on the second leg of the tour beginning after the first of the year.
